Remote Team Management

October 8, 2021, 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

BIZ B46 [CRN 60359], online course Cost: $59

The abrupt closure of many offices last spring resulted in a significant shift in how companies adapted to a large segment of their workforce working remotely. While the pandemic has changed the way many employees do their job—either in person or remotely—it has substantially reshaped the culture of work for a majority of employed adults. Whether you have a team of one or many, learn how to successfully lead and manage your team remotely so that they remain connected, engaged, and productive.

- Learn to stay connected while working remotely
- Build an effective remote team
- Develop effective communication
